

EVITA

MultiGenre's Singer

ABOUT ME

Evita (born 10 February 1971) is a multilingual oldies, jazz, soul, pop, pop-opera singer , with more than 90 albums. Evita grew up in Hungary with her family and beloved grandparents . Although no one in her family played music, Her parents loved Elvis Presley and The Beatles, rock & roll and jazz music, So they listened to a lot of music . After finishing the primary school, she was invited by her aunt and uncle to Venezuela, to learn Spanish language . There she was influenced a lot by latin music. After finishing the secondary school in Hungary, she went again to Venezuela. .She was influenced by the pop music of Gloria Estefan and Luis Miguel, and by the salsa music . After spending a year again in Venezuela, she came back to Hungary. Got married , and studied Human Resource Management at the University of Pécs. She always wanted to sing . She is still an unsigned singer .

ANTONIO'S SONG

MY SPECIAL PERFORMANCE OF MICHAEL FRANKS SONG

I heard it on the radio, couple of years ago - and from the first moment I felt I have to sing this song one day . That fuzzy feeling, when you feel you have no other choice ..
