Russian-Brazilian singer Siberia (port. Sibéria) making her debut with the song Speed Rider. Although having relatively short music career beautiful young singer makes her way in a world of show industry with support of the popular Russian producer and composer Dj Boston.

The song “Speed Rider” gives a feeling of adrenalin rush, mixing emotional melodic breaks with a powerful rocky chorus. The voice of Siberia, however, perfectly fits the contrast giving it the feel of cosmic dramatism.

“My intention is to promote the ideas of drive and speed further on as well as passing strong energy to my listeners”, Siberia commented.

The music video of Siberia’s “Speed Rider” is already in post-production and is promised to be released shortly on Siberia’s YouTube Channel
