Ukrainian electronic duo The Dark Wood appeared in 2015 and for a short period of time received strong support from artists like Dixon, Tale of Us and others. In his unique sound they skillfully mix classic IDM 90's like The Orb, Aphex Twin, Boards of Canada and current music trends in the spirit of labels like Innervisions and Life and Death.

The debut release of The Dark Wood was released on the German Traum Schallplatten techno label, but the main work on the project today — a new video for the single is still unreleased track — 'Orpheus'. Video Concept — an attempt to move the ancient Greek legend of the Argonauts in the current days. The Dark Wood try tell their story among the mystical landscapes of Dnipro river islands.

During 2016 The Dark Wood promise to present a full live-show and run own vinyl label.

— “We work with voices in your head. Like spiders we create net of sounds. In our experimental laboratory in Ukraine we blend freedom & dignity with 909 wormholes & melancholic synths”.
