

DJ RIDER

BIO

Ever since his arrival from Russia into the United States EDM entertainment scene, DJ Rider has taken it by storm with catchy, quality house music of all kinds that makes people dance.

DJ Rider was a resident DJ for many Los Angeles clubs such as Key Club, Ivar, Cinespace, Cabana, and Sugar. Moreover, he made a frequent guest appearances at Playhouse, Medusa, Seven-Forty, The Arena, Element, Memphis, Rolling Stone, Couture, Lexington Social House, Confidential Beverly Hills, as well as countless upscale private parties for high-end clients.

He has opened for the likes of Timo Maas, Tom Novy, and Spencer Parker. Thus it is no surprise that live performance is DJ Rider's speciality, often incorporating live elements to his shows. Even so, it came naturally that he began to produce in 2011. By 2013 his first original record "All Out of Love" ft. LA based singer Lucy Hart was signed to Switzerland label MJOY Records, and it became one of MJOY's most popular releases, its #3 most purchased track, and made it to the TOP 25 Beatport House Charts.

At the start of 2014, DJ Rider launched his own record label, Love Robot Records. With the gradual rise of DJ Rider's presence in the EDM industry, and regular flights between his home bases of NYC and LA, his calendar looks pretty booked between New York and Los Angeles, and the future looks bright for Love Robot Records and the label boss, DJ, and producer himself.
